Dear Brothers and Sisters,

All the readings for the Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time join in the celebration of the abundance of life that God is eager to bestow upon all the inhabitants of the Christian community. In this Sunday's gospel, we find an important revelation about God as seen through the humanity of Jesus. He had scarcely begun instructing a group of listeners when Jairus, one of the officials of the synagogue, interrupted Him with an intense appeal to come down and cure his critically ill daughter. Then Jesus, without a word of complaint, willingly and patiently accompanied Jairus to his home. Jesus' response reveals a God filled with compassion and mercy for men, women and children. Jairus is pleading to Jesus with mercy, and He answered his prayer. We are blessed that we have a God who is just and knows everything. There is no need to tell Him what he must do. So, how valuable is prayer to us? Do we really pray to God or do we pray because we are forced by circumstances? As Catholics, we must realize that prayer is the food for our soul. This is important as the food that we eat nurtures our body. This is our strength and hope. This is the whisper of our soul to Almighty God. This is our heart-to-heart talk with our God who always helps us.

Querido Hermanos & Hermanas,

Todas las lecturas de este domingo trece de nuestro tiempo ordinario, se unen a la celebración de la abundancia de vida que Dios está ansioso por otorgar a todos los habitantes de la comunidad cristiana.

En el evangelio del domingo, encontramos una revelación importante acerca de Dios como se ve a través de la humanidad de Jesús. Apenas había comenzado a instruir a un grupo de oyentes cuando Jairo, uno de los funcionarios de la sinagoga, lo interrumpió con un intenso clamor para que bajara y curara a su hija gravemente enferma. Jesús, sin una palabra de queja, acompaña con gusto y paciencia a Jairo a su casa. La respuesta de Jesús revela un Dios lleno de compasión y misericordia por los hombres, las mujeres y los niños.

Jairo le suplica a Jesús con misericordia, y Él respondió a su oración.

Tenemos la bendición de tener un Dios que es justo y lo sabe todo. No hay necesidad de decirle qué hacer. Reflexionemos, ¿cuán valiosa es la oración para nosotros? ¿Realmente oramos a Dios, o lo hacemos porque las circunstancias nos obligan? Como católicos, debemos darnos cuenta de que la oración es el alimento de nuestra alma. Esto es importante como el alimento que comemos para nutrir nuestro cuerpo. Ésta es nuestra fuerza y esperanza. Este es el susurro de nuestra alma al Todopoderoso a Dios. Esta es nuestra charla de corazón a corazón con nuestro Dios que siempre nos ayuda.

The Kids' Bulletin

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time
June 27th, 2021

In today's Gospel reading, someone believed that they would be healed from their sickness if they touched Jesus' clothes. The person touched Jesus and was instantly healed! But Jesus knew that power had gone out of Him, so He asked who had touched His clothes.

Who was cured? Follow the dark lines and see whose line points to Jesus.

Jesus Brings a Girl Back to Life

Cross-Word

*Fill in the blanks on the blanket!
A=Across
D=Down*

A man called 7A came and begged 7D to heal his daughter who was very 10A. So Jesus went, but on the way some people came from Jairus' house and said that the girl was 6D. But Jesus went anyway, and said that the 3D wasn't dead, but only 5D. He only took three of His apostles when he went in to see the girl: 9A, 1A, and 1D. He 12A everyone else out of the room, except the girl's father and 2D. Then Jesus took the girl's hand and said, " 8D." She got up and started walking around! God let this happen to show 11A what He can do when we have 4A in Him.
