Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The experience of Jesus in Mathew brings us Jesus' question about who He is as the Son of the living God and how he will build his Church and the identity we ourselves share as the Body of Christ. As Peter, we witness to the presence of the Risen Christ made visible in and through us.

We are like wise given responsibilities and a mission of authority by Jesus. At Baptism, the priest reminds parents and godparents of their task and commitment of raising the baptized child following Jesus' footprints. Also, we build up his Body anytime we reach out to others in need; every time we gather to give God praise; anytime we forgive and offer encouragement and compassion. As Christians, we rely on one another in our strengths and weaknesses; our gifts and our limitations. As we begin our school year, we pray for God's blessings upon all our teachers and students as they begin the new school year. We also keep praying for all people who crossed the USA borders and we remember all families who have lost their loved one through this pandemic period on the world.

Querido Hermanos & Hermanas,

La experiencia de Jesús en Mateo, nos trae la pregunta de Jesús acerca de quién es el Hijo del Dios viviente y cómo edificará su Iglesia y la identidad que nosotros mismos compartimos como el Cuerpo de Cristo. Como Pedro, somos testigos de la presencia de Cristo resucitado que se hace visible en nosotros y a través de nosotros. Asimismo, se nos da responsabilidades y misión desde la autoridad de Jesús.

En el bautismo, el sacerdote recuerda a los padres y padrinos de su tarea y el compromiso de criar al niño bautizado siguiendo las huellas de Jesús. Además, construimos su cuerpo en cualquier momento que nos acercamos a los demás que están necesitados; cada vez que nos reunimos para celebrar nuestra fe en comunidad; en cualquier momento que perdonamos y ofrecemos apoyo y compasión. Como cristianos, nos apoyamos un@s a otr@s en nuestras fortalezas y debilidades; nuestros dones y nuestras limitaciones.

Al comenzar nuestro año escolar, oramos a Dios para que derrame su bendición sobre todos nuesta@s profesores y estudiantes. También continuamos orando por todas las personas que cruzan las fronteras de Estados Unidos y por todas las familias que han perdido a sus seres queridos a través de este periodo pandémico en todo el mundo.

Rev. Benjamin Romero, CMF
Misionero Claretiano.

"You Are Peter."

Today in the Gospel reading, Jesus asked His disciples who people thought that He was. Everybody seemed to think He was someone special, but none of them knew who He really was. When Jesus asked the disciples themselves who they thought He was, Simon said that He was "the Christ, the Son of the living God!" Simon only knew this because God had put it into his mind.

When Simon had said this, Jesus said that his name would now be Peter, which means rock, and that on this rock He would build His Church. He made Simon Peter the first pope. He also said that the gates of Hell would not prevail against the Church. Jesus was assuring us that He would always protect the Church from error.

Now whenever the pope, or the bishops who are agreeing with the pope, teach anything about God, we know that they are right. Jesus gave the teaching authority to Peter, and he passed it down to the bishops through all the centuries until now. Isn't that pretty amazing?
