Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 11, 2020

I can do all things in him who strengthens me.

— Philippians 4:13

Vigésimo Octavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

11 de octubre de 2020

Todo lo puedo unido a aquél que me da fuerza.

— Filipenses 4:13

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — On this mountain the LORD will make for all peoples a feast of rich food and choice wines (Isaiah 25:6-10a).

Psalm — I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life (Psalm 23).

Second Reading — God will supply whatever you need (Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20).

Gospel — I have prepared my banquet, and everything is ready. Come to the feast! (Matthew 22:1-14 [1-10]).

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — El Señor preparará un banquete y secará las lágrimas de todos los rostros (Isaías 25:6-10a).

Salmo — Viviré en la casa del Señor todos los días de mi vida (Salmo 23 [22]).

Segunda lectura — No importa las circunstancias en las que nos encontremos, nuestras necesidades se resolverán en Cristo Jesús (Filipenses 4:12-14, 19-20).

Evangelio — La invitación se ha enviado; todo está listo; vengan a la fiesta (Mateo 22:1-14 [1-10]).

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The experience of Jesus in Matthew's Gospel shows us how the king, who represents God, takes the initiative, as always, to invite. God has chosen a particular people and has established a covenant with them, but they were unfaithful. So, others like us have been called to become God's people. Every day we are invited to the feast of the Eucharist. God constantly guides, protects, and nurtures us. The banquet is an open invitation to all who feel the call. At the same time, we must intentionally be ready to serve others. It is a way to share our gifts with others, to donate time, company, and resources to grow a relationship within family and our neighborhoods. We keep in our prayer the students, all the families who struggles during this pandemic period and our undocumented immigrants and their families.

Querido Hermanos & Hermanas,

La experiencia de Jesús en el Evangelio de Mateo nos muestra cómo el rey, que representa a Dios, toma la iniciativa como siempre invitar. Dios ha escogido a un pueblo en particular y se ha establecido un pacto con ell@s, pero eran infieles. Así otros como nosotros han sido llamados a ser pueblo de Dios. Todos los días, se nos invita a la fiesta de la Eucaristía. Dios guía constantemente, protege y nutre con gran abundancia, y termina con todas las lágrimas y nos da gozo eterno. El banquete es una invitación abierta a todos los que sienten la llamada, y al mismo tiempo intencionalmente debemos estar listo para servir a los demás. Es una manera de compartir nuestros dones con los demás, a donar tiempo, compañía y los recursos con otros, a crecer en relación dentro de la familia y de nuestros barrios. Continuamos orando por tod@s inmigrantes indocumentado@s y sus familias.

True or False: Who is Invited to the Wedding?

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus compares the kingdom of Heaven to a king giving a wedding feast for his son. What happened in the story? See if you know which of these are true statements and which are false:

1. The first time the servants went out to call those who were invited, all the guests came. True or false?
2. When the king sent out the second group of servants, some people didn't come, but went off to their farms and businesses. True or false?
3. Some people mistreated and even killed the servants. True or false?
4. The king decided that nobody else was worthy to come to his son's wedding. True or false?
5. The king decided to send his servants out into the streets to call everyone to come to the wedding. True or false?
6. When the servants called the people in the streets, they all came and filled the banquet hall. True or false?
7. When the king came in to look at his guests and found one that wasn't dressed for the wedding, he had him thrown out of the place. True or false?
