Dear Brothers and Sisters,

As we go through our Lenten Journey, the Gospel has impelled us to reflect in our commitment as Christians. The experience of John in today's gospel shows us two journeys that have come to the end. The Blind Man who did not see the light since he was born and he received his sight by Jesus, The light of the World. He becomes the one who teaches others about Jesus. And his journey from darkness to the light has come to the end. The second journey is about the Pharisees. They are the custodians of the tradition and faith. They are those who should be leading people to the true light. But they have fallen into blindness because of their stubbornness and refusal to recognize Jesus. As Christians we have to realize that Lent is an invitation to ask ourselves whether we are walking in the light or in the darkness. We also need to find our way to make our faith grow deeper and more mature.

Dear parishioners, through our gospel I would like to invite you to remain calm, to maintain the trust in our Lord and listen attentively to official press releases and implement their recommendations. We all know that out there is a lot of information about how the situation of COVID -19 or Corona-Virus evolves, but the clear thing is that we are still walking in the darkness of this situation, but just as the blind man had patience and trusted in the Lord, today we can keep our sanity and trust in the divine mercy and in our authorities to overcome this situation together. You are always in my prayers,

Rev. Benjamin Romero Arrieta, CMF

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas,

Así como hemos ido a través de nuestra jornada de la cuaresma, el Evangelio nos ha invitado a reflexionar en nuestro compromiso como cristianos. La experiencia de Juan en el evangelio de hoy nos muestra dos experiencias de vida que llegan a su fin. El hombre ciego quien nunca ha visto la luz desde su nacimiento y la recibe de Jesús, la luz del mundo. Él se convierte en el que comparte la experiencia de Jesús con otros. Y su jornada de la oscuridad a la luz ha llegado al final. La segunda experiencia de vida es acerca de los fariseos. Ellos son los custodios de la fe y la tradición. Ellos son los que deberían guiar al pueblo a través de la verdadera luz. Pero ellos han caído en la oscuridad porque su terquedad y negación a reconocer a Jesús. Como cristianos tenemos que darnos cuenta que la cuaresma es una invitación para preguntarnos si estamos caminando en la luz o la oscuridad. También necesitamos encontrar nuestro camino para que nuestra fe continúe creciendo y madurando.

También a través del evangelio me atrevo a invitarlos a guardar la calma, mantener la confianza en nuestro Señor y escuchar atentos los comunicados oficiales de prensa e implementar sus recomendaciones. Existe mucha información acerca de cómo evoluciona la situación de COVID -19 o Corona-Virus, y lo claro es que aún estamos caminando en la oscuridad de esta situación, pero así como el ciego tuvo paciencia y confianza en el Señor, hoy podemos guardar la cordura y confiar en la misericordia divina y en nuestras autoridades para superar juntos esta situación. Siempre en mi oración,

Rev. Benjamín Romero Arrieta, CMF

DEAR PARISHIONERS / QUERIDOS PARROQUIANOS

We here at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church have been closely monitoring the evolving COVID-19 (coronavirus) along with the rest of the Archdiocese of San Antonio. As per a decree issued by our Shepard, Archbishop Gustavo, we have suspended all Masses at our Parish until further notice. In these trying times I appreciate the continued support you have given to our Parish. Even though we are forced to close our doors, we do it willingly for the health and safety of our community. Although we are not having Mass and our usual weekly collections, you are welcome to continue supporting our parish with your contributions by bringing them into the office during our current office hours, by mail or through our website ihmsatx.org under the "Our Parish" tab and "Giving to IHM". There is a dropdown menu for donation options where you can choose "Sunday Offering". I thank you for your continued support of Immaculate Heart of Mary Church through these trying times. We will get through this together. God Bless You and keep you safe.
